

Glossary for user

Registration Page – one of the Website pages, where user can register new account

Login Page – one of the Website pages, where user can log in system if they have registered on the website before

Account Page – one of the Website pages, where user can see all of their payments ever made in PaymentTable and log out

Blog Page – one of the Website pages, where user can see all the posts in the blog ever made. It is possible to open every post in overlay window to read the description text of the post. Admin can also edit and delete existing records

Purchase Page – one of the Website pages, where user can choose between 3 price options and click on the Payment button to pay chosen price using Liqpay checkout API

Home Page – one of the Website pages, where user can slide the photo gallery, using button “Buy Photoshoot” be redirected to the Purchase Page, view 3 latest posts in the blog. Admin can add new post with “Create post” button

Photoshoot – the photography which duration depends on user’s choice and according payment done

Post – a single blog record displayed on the Blog Page and if it is among 3 latest it is also displayed on the Home page. It can be edited and deleted only by user with “admin” role

Checkout API – Liqpay’s API represented as a button with further redirect to personalized payment page with 10 payment methods